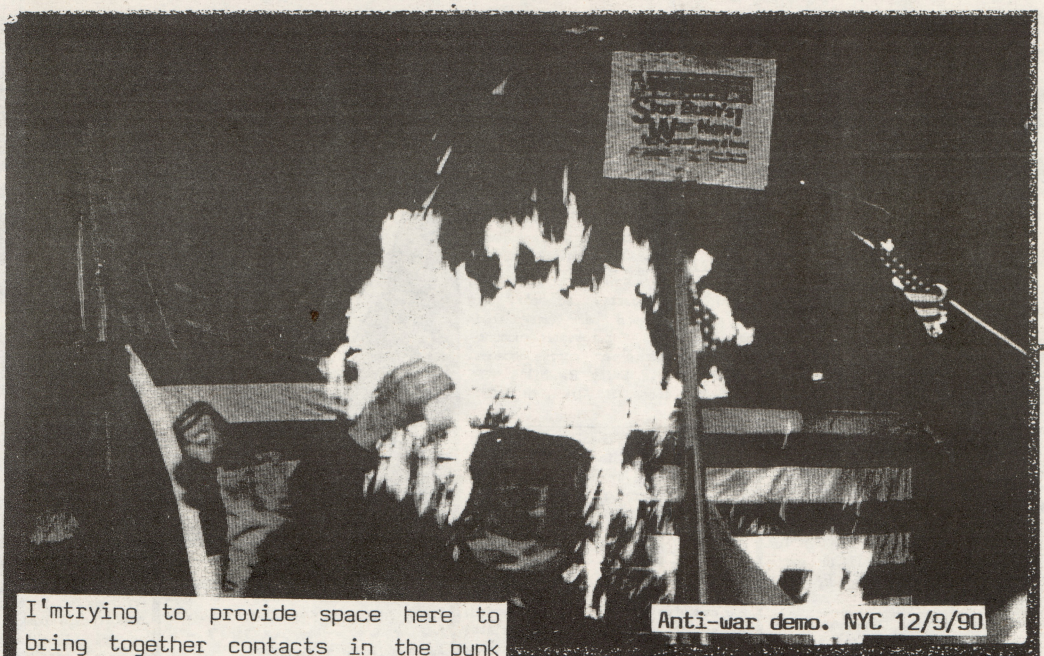
SLUG & LETTUCE



Anti-war demo. NYC 12/9/90

I'mtrying to provide space here to bring together contacts in the punk community and encourage communication. Esp. DIY (Do it yourself) projects. In addition to S&L I want to put together lists of contacts (distributors, places for shows, fanzines etc.) If you would like to be included or have any helpful information to add, please get in touch w/ me. Also w/ the classifieds I would like to encourage more pen pal ads. Plus if anyone wants to know more about what is going on here in NYC, either w/ ABC-NO-RIO or Squat or Rot, feel free to write. Both groups are doing alot to hold the underground community together, but it seems some rumors & false info. has been spreading. Recycling: whenever you have a chance to recycle anything, please do. It really does make a difference. For helpful hints see S&L#18 or for more info write to me. -Chris

Born Against ABC-NO-RIO 11/3/90

Our country is envolved now in a ridiculous corporate war while the country at home is falling apart. The needs of our own people are not being met, while our gov't is more concerned w/ involing itself w/ other countries affairs. Something needs to be done before it's to late. We're falling apart.

Why is it that whenever someone tries to do a good thing, it seems people need to find fault with them. It really is such a waste of time and energy, that could be used together to improve more on the given situation. Why can't people try to be a little more accepting of each others (personel) differences when we're all working towards a common goal. Need we always be in cliques, pointing the finger at someone else? If we could all only stop bickering & fighting behinds each others backs, we could get a whole lot more done. (That's the way the world is thought right? Well it dosen't need to be.) Also I've noticed that people tend to do a lot of bitching and yet never do anything themselves, for example w/ ABC-NO-RIO, a lot of people don't seem to appreciate or support what we've got, mostly over personel gripes or apathy. A measly $5 a show is only going back into the bands & the space, should that be to much to ask. People just complaining and not helping or making suggestions can only ruin what we have, and that would be a shame. Just some things to think about. -Chris reviews

Bad Religion "Against the Grain" Epitaph Rec. -Their newest release rather melodic singing w/ upbeat punchy music. Post punk w/ that California style, reminds me slightly of what S.D. is doing.

Poison Idea "Feel the Darkness" American Leather Rec. - Excellent rockin punk rock. It's Poison Idea, doing Poison Idea. Enough Said? It's great. CD has my photos, LP dosen't.

Lunachicks "Babysitters on Acid" Blast First - The chicks finally have an LP and need I say it rocks!! A few tunes from the 7"'s and some from the live set. Comes w. a big full color photo book of their zanyness. Good shit, it's worth the money.

Insted "What We Believe" Epitaph Rec. - Hardcore posi style from Orange county. HC/SE as expected. The SE isn't overbearing and the music is tight and punchy. Personally not my thing.

Skinsect LP (Over & Out rec.) - Grunge scum rock in the style of Iggy Pop or the like. Ranchy hardrock w/ rock n' roll guitar. It falls together pretty good.

Political Asylum "Window on the World" -A very melodic folky combo w/ political aware lyrics. Though pretty mello, it's peaceful enjoyment and kinda catchy. (Electrode Records.)

Citizen Fish "Free souls in a Trapped Enviornment" (Bluurg) X-members of Culture Shock/Subhumans, form a similar style of reggae ska/punk w/ Dicks unique vocals. Unique and excellent, would we expect anything else?

Crass "Christ the Bootlet" - An american bootleg of a live show in 1984. Good recording. "Pay no more than $3.50" though!!

Dehumanizers "Go to Hollywood" LP (Mystic Rec.) -What happened to Mystic?? Nothing punk or HC here, we're talking rock and roll w/ a bit of twang and grunge w/ weird recordings between songs.

Love Dolls "Love one Another" (Buy our Rec.) -With the new onslaught of R-n-R, here's an all girl glam rock band. It figures they're from LA,. I do like girl bands, but this is nothing special.

Gods Acre "Ten Gospel Greats" (Wax Trax) - I expected Industrial and I got yet another retro '70 hardrock band. A heavy rock n' roll grunge. Rock on dude.

Jesus Chrust "Blasphemy ep" (Fudgeworthy Rec.) -Out of nowhere comes J.C. from Boston (not to be mistaken as being from NYC)(I still don't get that) 18 songs of pure thrash, almost Sore Throat. Lyrical content is short, rewritten (blasphemous) comandments.

Radicts "Cruel Times/Rich & Dirty" (Polemic Rec.) -Finally NYC's favorite, pure pogoing punk rock band has a 7". I can feel all the colored hair & mohawked people pogoing around already. How could anyone not like 'em. Check it out definatly!!$3ppd Pol.Rec. POBox 1516 / Moses Lake WA 98837
